Resource Stewardship Girl Scout Ranger

Community Service Opportunity

Location: Fort and Fort Grounds
Division: Interpretation and/or Maintenance
Position: Encampment Host

Service Description:

This position provides community service organizations, such as Daisy through Ambassador Girl Scouts, an opportunity to complete a project while assisting park staff with large tasks. Depending on the project, the troop may or may not have contact with the public. Any way a group wishes to assist the park will enhance the visitors' experience through completion of their specific project. Depending on availability of space and needs of the park, troops may be invited to spend the night encamped within the facilities. Details about specific events that troops of individual scouts can participate in can be found on the Fort Stanwix NM webpage at: www.nps.gov/fost/planyourvisit/events.htm

Specific Duties May Include:

- Coordinating with park staff on project needs
- Readying the fort for winter and/or spring
- Policing the park grounds for trash
- Providing assistance to park staff during Living History or other large events
- Providing directions or assistance to the public during Living History events or other large events
