Dear

Katy yours of the 18 has just come to hand I was glad to hear you were all well and that you had received the money that I had sent you you seem to think it would not be right to take my money to buy collars and bridles with well Katy it is just right it is your money and I earned it and sent it to you I want you to use what you need of it and pay the rest on our debts that field you raised corn on ought to be sowed in wheat or some small grain but I am afraid it is to wet for wheat if I was there to ditch it for you and get it in in good time I think I could make it bring good wheat but it is getting late for wheat you must recollect Katy and I would advise you to not sow more than eight or ten acres if you can you had better rent some ground out for wheat you never told me how much rent wheat you got from Levi Trulock yet you said you had raised 45 bushels but did not say whether it was that in all to gather or not nor do you ever tell me whether the frost injured any thing or not in one of your letter you said you had right smart of winter apples and they had not rotted much as yet well I want you to have a lot of them put up for winter for I allow to beat home to help you eat them I fell to day as though I was getting well fast

Yours in love Thos. Whitson
