

Cultural Holiday Festival at Oxon Hill Farm

Sunday, December 6, 2009
12 pm to 3 pm

Join us in celebrating this joyous time of year by paying tribute to the cultures (African, Native, and European) that have shaped the park's history. Through a variety of activities, we will experience how each cultural group celebrated the seasonal changes of winter and discover the history of the holiday season.

Activities:

Apple Cider Pressing • Horse Drawn Wagon Rides • African and Native American Story Telling • Music Performed by Bishop McNamara High School Madrigals • 19th Century Parlor Games • Holiday Craft Making • Wool Spinning • African American Quilt Display
• Free Light Refreshments

Cultural Object Game sponsored by the National Children's Museum

Oxon Hill Farm is located at 6411 Oxon Hill Road, Oxon Hill, Maryland. Please call 301-839-1176 for directions or more information. You can also visit our webpage at www.nps.gov/oxhi. This event is free and all are welcome.