

National Park Week 2012 Video: Picture Yourself at Point Reyes National Seashore

| | |
|---------------|---|
| Script | [Majestic Music] Scene 1 – Law Enforcement Park Ranger on the Point Reyes Beach with the Point Reyes Headlands in the distance. Ranger: “Eighty miles of shoreline.” [Sound of a camera shutter.] Scene 2 – Two trail crew employees standing at the Bear Valley Trail-Coast Trail junction. Trail crew employee: “One-hundred-and-fifty miles of hiking trails.” [Sound of a camera shutter.] Scene 3 – Biological Science Technician standing on ridge with view of Drakes Estero. Biological Science Technician: “Seventy-thousand acres of biodiversity.” [Sound of a camera shutter.] Scene 4 – Interpretive Park Ranger standing on stairs leading down to the Lighthouse. Ranger: “Two-hundred-and-ninety-seven historic structures.” [Sound of a camera shutter.] Scene 5 – Interpretive Park Ranger standing in front of an acorn granary at Kule Loklo with a basket in her arms. Ranger: “Five-thousand years of cultural history.” [Sound of a camera shutter.] Scene 6 – Maintenance employee standing in front of the Bear Valley Visitor Center. Engineer: “One mission.” [Sound of a camera shutter.] Scene 7 - Collage of images of park employees, scenes, wildlife, and flowers. [Voice over]: “Come celebrate our mission with use during National Park Week. And picture yourself at Point Reyes National Seashore.” |
|---------------|---|