

Big South Fork

National River and Recreation Area

October 2011 Cultural Heritage Month at Blue Heron

Big South Fork National River and Recreation Area will be hosting Cultural Heritage Month at Blue Heron each Saturday in October. National Park Service staff and volunteers will be demonstrating various arts and skills that were once part of Appalachian people's livelihood and trade. Activities and programs will be held from 10:00 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. For more information please contact Stearns Visitor Center at (606) 376-5073 or Blue Heron at (606) 376-3787.

October 1 - Old Timey Toys, Hand Spinning, and "Beyond Blue Heron" (skit).

October 8 - Interview with a Coal Miner's Daughter, Hand Spinning, Blacksmithing, Old Time Music Tunes, and Animal Tracks.

October 15 - "We Just Wanted to Be Left Alone" (Civil War skit), Chicken Scratch Embroidery, Basket Weaving, and the Knoxville Area Dulcimer Club Music.

October 22 - "We Just Wanted to Be Left Alone" (Civil War skit), Moonshining, Kentucky Longhunter, Hand Spinning and Fibers, and Corn Husk Dolls

October 29 - "Beyond Blue Heron" (skit), Hand Spinning, Candlewicking Embroidery, Old Timey Toys and Woodworking.