- To protect night skies, please turn off lights when not needed.

Wildlife

Welcome to bear country! When you are staying at the South Rim Campground, you are a guest in the home of several different animals, including black bears. Please do your part in keeping these animals wild by following the guidelines below.

Please secure ALL scented items at ALL times either in your vehicle or a bear box:

- All food (including pet food) and trash. Please do not hang trash from trees.
- All drinks, even in sealed cans or bottles
- Gum, mints, and candy
- Tobacco

- Insect repellent and sun block
- Soap, including dish soap, hand sanitizers, and all other cleaning products
- Cosmetics, toiletries, scented tissue
- Citronella or other candles

If you are new to camping in bear country, please see a park ranger or the camp host for important information and regulations.

Please do everything you can to keep your food and trash away from bears and other animals. A fed bear is a dead bear.

Remember, we are guests in their home!

Camper Services

Services such as dump stations, showers, laundry, fuel, groceries, and campfire wood are not available in the park, but can be found in nearby communities. Please inquire locally for availability.
