Welcome

Preserving America's colorful canal era and transportation history, the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal National Historical Park is 184.5 miles of adventure. Operating for nearly 100 years, the canal was a lifeline for communities along the Potomac River as coal, lumber, and agricultural products floated down the waterway to market. Today, millions of visitors hike or bike the canal each year to enjoy the natural, cultural, and recreational opportunities.

Biking

The Canal Towpath provides 184.5 miles of gravel path for biking.

- Ride single file
- Bells and helmets are recommended
- Stay to the right except when passing
- Yield right of way to all pedestrians and horses
- Children must wear bike helmets
- Walk bike across aqueducts

Boating

Non-motorized boats are allowed in the following watered sections of the canal: Mile 0-22, Williamsport, Little Pool, Big Pool, Hancock, Oldtown, and Cumberland.

- Canoeing is not advisable in the river between Great Falls and Chain Bridge
- Motorized vessels are prohibited in the canal
- Boat ramp access to the Potomac River can be found on the park map
- Personal Flotation Devices are required by the State of Maryland

Dog Walking

Dogs are permitted in the park and must be on leash no longer than 6 feet and under the owner's physical control.

Hiking

The C&O Canal has a variety of hiking opportunities for all skill levels. In addition to the 184.5 miles of towpath, there are 14 miles of trails in the Great Falls area and another two mile trail at the Paw Paw Tunnel near Cumberland.

Hiking (cont'd)

- Trail maps are available at visitor centers
- Bring water
- Wear sturdy footwear
- Be prepared for changing weather conditions

Horseback Riding

Horses are permitted on the towpath starting at Swains Lock (mile 16.6) upstream to Candoc/Offutt Street (mile 181.8). Horses are NOT allowed at the following locations:

- Georgetown (mile 0) to Swains Lock (mile 16.6)
- Candoc/Offutt Street (mile 181.8) to Cumberland Terminus (mile 184.5)
- Paw Paw Tunnel
- Drive/walk-in campgrounds
- Picnic areas
- All other hiking areas

Picnicking

Group picnicking is available at the Carderock Pavilion. Accommodations for up to 200 people are available. An advanced permit is required and a fee is charged. Permits can be obtained by calling 301-767-3731.

Swimming

Swimming is not permitted in the canal, or in the Potomac River bordering the District of Columbia and Montgomery County, MD. Swimming is not recommended in other areas of the river.

Firearm Regulations

Federal law allows people who can legally possess firearms under applicable federal, state, and local laws to carry firearms in this park. Federal law also prohibits firearms in certain facilities in the park. Those places are marked with signs at all public entrances and include visitor centers and lockhouses.

Firewood Restriction

Due to an infestation by the emerald ash borer beetle, a park wide ban is in effect on bringing in your own firewood. Campers may collect dead and down wood in the park.

Leave No Trace Principles

C&O Canal is a trash free park. Please take trash, dog and horse waste with you. Trash bags are provided at dispensers located throughout the park.

For a complete listing of park rules and regulations please visit the Superintendent's Compendium: www.nps.gov/choh/parkmgmt

Canal Quarters

Spend the night in a lockhouse! Lockhouses 6, 10, 22, 25, 28, and 49 are open for overnight stays. Each house is furnished in a different time period and tells a unique canal story. Lockhouses sleep up to eight people. This interpretive program is a partnership between the park and our official nonprofit partner, the C&O Canal Trust. For more information and registration visit the Canal Trust website: www.CanalQuarters.org
