Letters

Readers may submit letters to the editor (see contact information on the page facing the table of contents). Letters should include the writer's name, address, and daytime telephone number for confirmation. Letters may be edited for publication and not all letters will be published. If a letter pertains to an article or review, the editor may forward the letter to the author for reply.

Summer 2005 issue

Your summer issue is interesting and the Lowenthal article especially so, exceptionally well done. I plan to use it to stimulate a discussion at the next board retreat of our local Land Trust.

General Comments

I'm really impressed with the changes to CRM in recent years. The quality, content, and professionalism of the journal have increased substantially, in my opinion. Thanks!

Sam Tamburro Historian Cuyahoga Valley National Park

I just wanted to pass on that I enjoy the journal greatly. It has a wonderful and eclectic mix of articles that are all of interest.

Harold Skramstad President (retired) Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village

I don't want to miss a single copy! Huzzah for your team.

CRM = cultural resource management

CRM: The Journal of Heritage Stewardship is published twice each year by the National Park Service to address the history and development of and trends and emerging issues in cultural resource management in the United States and abroad. Its purpose is to broaden the intellectual foundation of the management of cultural resources.
