

PARK SPECIFIC STIPULATIONS GROUP CAMPING AT SAVAGE RIVER CAMPGROUND

1. Campground Requirements:

- Group size limit is 20 people per site, inclusive of CUA holder and employees.
- Vehicle limit is two (2) per campsite.
- Group camping is authorized in group sites A, B, and 34.
- Camping is limited to 14 total nights annually, with no more than seven (7) consecutive nights.
- The Savage Campground picnic shelter is open to all campers. CUA holders may use the picnic shelter but must share the resource with all campers. The space is not determined on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Parking at the picnic shelter is prohibited. The CUA holder may temporarily park to pick up and drop off supplies.

2. Group campsite reservations are available beginning December 1 for the following year. Reservations must be made over the telephone by calling the reservation center at 800-622-7275. Operators must provide the reservation agent the name of the company at the time of reservation.

3. Driving:

- Groups are authorized to drive to and from the Savage River Campground in support of their stay in the campground.
- Driving beyond the Savage River Campground is prohibited.
- Driving beyond the Denali Visitor Center outside of the dates of a reservation at the campground is prohibited.
- Parking at Park Headquarters is prohibited.

4. Savage Alpine Trail:

- Holders of a CUA for Group Camping at Savage Campground are authorized to hike as a commercial group on the Savage Alpine Trail, which is located between the Savage Campground and the Savage River at Mile 15 on the Denali Park Road.
- The group size limit for this activity is 12, inclusive of CUA holders and employees (guides). As the group camping size limit is 20, the CUA holder must separate clientele who wish to hike on the Savage Alpine Trail into smaller groups that comply with the limit of 12.
- CUA holders and employees are prohibited from driving a vehicle beyond the Savage Campground for any purpose, including in support of hiking on the Savage Alpine Trail. CUA holders and employees are encouraged to utilize the free Savage River Shuttle Bus for transportation to and/or from the trailhead at Mile 15.
