

School/Youth Group Behavior Expectations

Please make sure everyone in the group knows and understands this information.

- Walk – do not run. This reduces accidents.
- Keep voices down. Sound travels surprisingly well here.
- Follow directions given by teachers, adult helpers and park staff.
- Keep feet on the ground. No climbing on benches, walls, etc.
- Be polite and courteous to others in the memorial.
- No food, drink or gum is permitted at the Memorial Plaza.
- Share the sidewalks, walk in line or single file.
- Adults and children/minors need to stay together.
- Stay on sidewalks or trails – our memorial is home to many plants and animals.
- Remember, this is a National Park Service site, so leave plants, animals, rocks, etc. in place and in the same condition as found.
- Dress for the weather: coats, hats and sweaters may be necessary at any time of the year.
- Do not throw ice or snow.
- Please assist in keeping Flight 93 National Memorial a beautiful place. Report littering and vandalism.
- Enjoy exploring your memorial and learning about the Story of Flight 93.

School/Youth Group Behavior Expectations

Please make sure everyone in the group knows and understands this information.

- Walk – do not run. This reduces accidents.
- Keep voices down. Sound travels surprisingly well here.
- Follow directions given by teachers, adult helpers and park staff.
- Keep feet on the ground. No climbing on benches, walls, etc.
- Be polite and courteous to others in the memorial.
- No food, drink or gum is permitted at the Memorial Plaza.
- Share the sidewalks, walk in line or single file.
- Adults and children/minors need to stay together.
- Stay on sidewalks or trails – our memorial is home to many plants and animals.
- Remember, this is a National Park Service site, so leave plants, animals, rocks, etc. in place and in the same condition as found.
- Dress for the weather: coats, hats and sweaters may be necessary at any time of the year.
- Do not throw ice or snow.
- Please assist in keeping Flight 93 National Memorial a beautiful place. Report littering and vandalism.
- Enjoy exploring your memorial and learning about the Story of Flight 93.