

SF SPCA

Open Space Etiquette Class

Off-leash areas in urban settings – such as here at Crissy Field in Golden Gate National Recreation Area – are typically shared with other visitors, dogs, horses, and varied wildlife.

This class is to help dog guardians learn how to train and proof behaviors that will enable dogs to behave politely in a multi-use open space area.

Interested in learning more or signing up for a class?

Visit sfspca.org/training

