Desert View Market closing for extensive remodeling at Grand Canyon National Park

Grand Canyon, Ariz. – The Desert View Market, operated by Delaware North Companies Parks and Resorts, will be closed for extensive remodeling at Grand Canyon National Park starting January 1, 2008. The store is anticipated to reopen February 11, 2008.

The remodeling efforts are being done to improve the look and function of the store. These efforts include replacing the flooring and roofing, upgrading fixtures and overhauling the interior space.

All other Desert View facilities will remain open during the remodeling efforts including the Desert View Watchtower, the snack bar and gas station. Please refer to The Guide, a free park publication, for the winter schedules of these facilities.

Desert View is located approximately 25 miles east of the Grand Canyon Village. The Canyon Village Marketplace in the Grand Canyon Village and the General Store in Tusayan, which borders the park to the south, will remain open and provide comparable services to the Desert View Market.

For more information about the Desert View Market remodeling, please call Karen Dickson of Delaware North at 928-638-2262 or Grand Canyon National Park Concessions Management Specialist Laura Nelson at 928-638-7704.
