Hālau Ke 'Olu Makani o Maunaloa

Wednesday, February 17, 2016

6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Kīlauea Visitor Center Auditorium

E ho'onanea mai. . . Come and enjoy an evening of FREE Hawaiian music.

Hālau Ke 'Olu Makani o Maunaloa began in 1990 and has been perpetuating the art of hula for more than twenty years. The hālau, under the direction of Kumu Hula Meleana

Manuel, is from the Kilauea-Volcano area on the Big Island of Hawai'i. They have participated in many competitions, festivals, and events throughout the State and in Japan as well as on the U.S. mainland. The hālau's branches include many areas in Japan and San Francisco, California. The hālau's goal is the perpetuation of Hawaiian culture, protocol and history through song and dance while also instilling confidence, respect and responsibility.

Kumu Meleana received her 'ūniki from Master Loea George Lanakilakeikiahiali'i Na'ope.

Nā Leo Manu is part of a series of Hawaiian cultural programs sponsored by Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park and Hawai'i Pacific Parks Association
