

SAVE THE DATE!

Latino Legacy Forum

In partnership with County of Los Angeles,
Department of Parks and Recreation

Thursday, October 24, 2013

9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Ruben Salazar Park (formerly Laguna Park)
3864 Whittier Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90023

Graduate and undergraduate students, historic preservationists, historical societies, and the community-at-large convene for a forum highlighting the American Latino Theme Study and the importance of identifying and preserving Latino heritage in California.

Panel discussions and break-out sessions will feature Latino scholars and leading preservation advocates.

Keynote address by Jon Jarvis, Director of the National Park Service.

The American Latino Scholars Expert Panel was established under the auspices of the National Park System Advisory Board. The expert panel provided advice on the structure of American Latinos and the Making of the United States: A Theme Study and advises the Board on engaging with the Latino American community to document their stories through the National Historic Landmarks and National Register of Historic Programs, and to enhance the interpretation and educational programs in national parks.

www.facebook.com/latinoscholarspanel

This event is free and open to the public.

Additional details about registration and the schedule of events will be available on the National Park Service website and the American Latino Scholars Facebook page in the coming weeks.

www.nps.gov/latino

