Hopewell Culture National Historical Park

Mound City Group, Hopewell Mound Group and Seip Earthworks are units of Hopewell Culture National Historical Park and are open to the public. Spruce Hill Works are located in Spruce Hill Preserve, which is owned and managed by the Arc of Appalachia Preserve System and the Ross County Park District in cooperation with Hopewell Culture National Historical Park. Spruce Hill Preserve is closed to the public and the gate to the preserve is locked, but permission to enter the preserve may be obtained from the Arc of Appalachia Preserve System or Hopewell Culture National Historical Park.
