| Volunteer Photographers donate their time and talents to capture scenic and recreational shots of our park. Volunteer Photographers document volunteer activities, special events, and other specialized requests. Photos may be used by the Indiana Dunes National Park for a wide variety of purposes, including social/news media and training. The main goal of Volunteer Photographers is encouraging volunteer stewardship by capturing the park's beauty and enjoying it in the process.  |                                  |          |   |                   |   |  |              |  |
