

Celebrating American Heritage

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Mount Rushmore National Memorial
South Dakota

Hau/Han Mitakuyapi !

(Greetings!)

Come and enjoy an entertaining performance of the Hoop Dance, flute and vocals interspersed with informative and inspirational stories of native culture by:

Kevin Locke "Tokeya Inajin"

Date:

Saturday, 19 June 2010

Time:

9:00-10:00 a.m.

1:00-2:00 p.m.

Location:

Xanterra Stage,

Mount Rushmore National Memorial

(Free program; Concessioner parking fees apply)

A renowned Hoop Dancer, preeminent player of the Northern Plains flute, and traditional storyteller, Kevin Locke is Lakota (Hunkpapa Band of the Lakota) and Anishinabe.

Celebrating American Heritage is a series of cultural programs sponsored by Mount Rushmore National Memorial and the Mount Rushmore History Association