

Special Event Intensity

There were no special events with over 1,000 participants during the winter months of 2008/2009 with the exception of the Presidential Inauguration which was excluded from this analysis.

Note: A large-scale event is defined as more than 1,000 participants. Based on estimated numbers of participants listed on permit application by event sponsor; actual number of participants not counted. Does not include 2009 inauguration.
