

FY2018 Funded Projects

University of Idaho

Implementing a Fecal DNA Sampling Method for Obtaining Demographic and Genetic Monitoring Data for the Endangered Sonoran Proghorn $39,521

Padre Island National Seashore

Conservation of Green Sea Turtles at Padre Island National Seashore
$49,956

Saguaro National Park

Cross-Pollination for Successful Outreach and Conservation in US-Mexico Parks and Reserves $47,559.20

Sky Island Alliance

Critical Water Sources - Finding Springs in the Borderlands
$33,174

Palo Alto Battlefield National Historical Park

Restore Habitat for the Endangered Northern Aplomado Falcon at Palo Alto Battlefield NNHP $38,300

University of Arizona

Anthropogenic and Climate Impacts on Ungulates in the Greater Organ Pipe Cactus National Monument Ecosystem $39,435

Coronado National Monument

Restoring Biotic Diversity in Lehmann Lovegrass-dominated Grasslands $49,971

Coronado National Monument

Restoring Anthropogenic Land Disturbances Along the U.S. - Mexican Border $49,935

Colorado State University

Ecohydrological Impacts of Roads in Arid Environments: Interruption of Sheetflow Pathways $46,804

University of Arizona

Establishing a Hydrolic and Biologic Baseline for Predictive Management of Threatened Freshwater Habitats in the Western Sonoran Desert $49,748

Big Bend National Park

Developing Inventory and Monitoring Protocols for Sister Park Springs

$44,125

El Paso County

Phase 2 Oñate Crossing Historic Structure Report and Cultural Landscape Report
Documentation

$50,000

University of Arizona

Ethnographic Documentation and Interpretation of O'odham Salt Pilgrimages at Organ
Pipe Cactus National Monument

$40,101