

FY2019 Funded Projects

Padre Island National Seashore

Restoring Green Sea Turtles Through Bi-national Partnerships with Padre Island NS
$49,956

Texas Tech University

Connectivity Analysis of Border Travel Paths to Protect Sensitive Resources
$38,209

University of Arizona

Establishing a hydrologic and biologic baseline for predictive management of threatened freshwater habitats in the western Sonoran Desert
$48,948

Saguaro National Park

Watershed Moment: Connecting People, Mountains and Rivers in the Sky Island Border Region
$47,317

University of Arizona

Increasing the effectiveness of monitoring abundance, migratory patterns, and border impacts of a rare pollinator, the lesser long-nosed bat
$49,969

Wesleyan University

Leaves of grass: First steps towards the recovery of Guadalupe fescue (Festuca ligulata), a newly-listed Chihuahuan Desert Borderlands Endangered Species
$48,239

Coronado National Monument

Restoring Biotic Diversity in Lehmann Lovegrass-dominated Grasslands
$49,815

Coronado National Monument

Restoring Anthropogenic Land Disturbances Along the U.S. - Mexican Border
$49,831

Colorado State University

Building management capacity in Mexican northern border parks through transfrontier cooperation
$49,947

Border Community Alliance

The Anza Trail & Its Continued Cultural Heritage' Grant Project Proposal
$35,744

Amistad National Recreation Area

Protect Mexican blindcat and rare cave species by prioritizing inventories of cave ecosystems

$49,865

Colorado State University

Mexican Ranger Capacity Building Support

$18,553

National Trails Intermountain Region

Research and Document Texas's Indigenous Communities along El Camino Real de los Tejas NHT

$35,010