

Campgrounds in Marin County and along the Sonoma Coast

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE CAMPGROUNDS

Camping reservations for many NPS sites:

1-877-444-6777 or <https://www.recreation.gov/>

Point Reyes National Seashore

<https://www.nps.gov/pore/>

Visit www.recreation.gov or call 1-877-444-6777 for reservations. Only backcountry campgrounds, located 1.4 to 5.5 miles from nearest trailheads, and boat-in sites on Tomales Bay are available. No drive-in campgrounds. Permits required and may be obtained at the Bear Valley Visitor Center. $20 per site/night for up to 6 people, $40 or $50 per group site/night for up to 25 people. No pets.

Golden Gate National Recreation Area

<https://www.nps.gov/goga/>

415-331-1540. In the Marin Headlands, located north and west of the Golden Gate Bridge.

Kirby Cove – 4 drive-up group campsites. $25/night, 2 to 10 people per site. Campsites are handicap accessible. For reservations, call 1-877-444-6777 or go to <http://www.recreation.gov/>.

For reservations at the following three campgrounds, call 415-331-1540, 9 am–4:30 pm, up to 90 days in advance.

Haypress – 5 hike-in campsites. Free. Maximum of four people per site. Hike in 0.75 miles from the Tennessee Valley parking lot.

Hawk – 3 hike-in campsites. Free. Maximum of four people per site. Hike in 3 miles from the Tennessee Valley Parking lot or 3.5 miles from the Headlands Visitor Center.

Bicentennial – 3 walk-in campsites. Free. Maximum of two people per site. Located 100 yards from road.

CALIFORNIA STATE PARK CAMPGROUNDS

Reservations: 1-800-444-7275 or

<https://www.reservecalifornia.com/>

Samuel P. Taylor State Park - Camp Taylor

https://www.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=469

415-488-9897. Six miles east of the Bear Valley Visitor Center on Sir Francis Drake Blvd., west of Lagunitas. 61 family sites: $35 per night. 8 person maximum per site. $8 charge for second vehicle. Hiker and bicyclist campsites: $5 per person per night, one night limit. 5 group sites: $35 for 10 person sites, $75 for 20 person horse camp, $110 for 25 person group site, $225 for 50 person site. 4 cabins: $100/cabin/night. $8 day use fee. No fee for dogs. Accessible campsites and restrooms with showers available. Reservations accepted and recommended April 1–Labor Day Weekend.

Mount Tamalpais State Park

https://www.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=471

415-388-2070. $8 day use fee.

Pantoll and Bootjack Campgrounds – 19 miles south of the Bear Valley Visitor Center, on Panoramic Highway. 15 walk-in (100 yards) tent sites. 8 person limit per site. Self-contained vehicles can stay one night in the parking lot between 6 pm and 9 am. $25 per night, first come, first served; self-registration. Restrooms, water, and firewood available.

Steep Ravine Cabins – One mile south of Stinson Beach. 10 rustic cabins and 6 hike-in campsites. $100 per cabin per night/$25 per tent site. Five people and one vehicle per site or cabin. Primitive toilets, water, and firewood nearby. No pets. Reservation only.

China Camp State Park - Back Ranch Campground

https://www.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=466

415-456-0766. 27 miles east from the Bear Valley Visitor Center. On N. San Pedro Road, along San Pablo Bay. 30 walk-in (100-400 yds) tent sites. $35 per night. $5 day use fee. No fee for dogs. Potable water, restrooms, and showers available. Reservations accepted.

Angel Island State Park Environmental Camping

https://www.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=468

415-435-5390. Access to the Island is by public ferry or private boat. 10 backpacking tent sites, located up to two miles from ferry dock: $30 per night. One kayak camp: $50 per night. $3 day use fee. Potable water and pit toilets available. Only service animals are allowed on Angel Island. Reservations accepted.

Sonoma Coast State Park

https://www.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=451

707-875-3483. $8 day use fee. 8 person limit per campsite. Accessible campsites and restrooms available, except at Willow Creek. No fee for dogs. Reservations for Bodega Dunes or Wright's Beach through RESERVAMERICA. Willow Creek and Pomo Canyon Environmental Campgrounds are first come, first served.

Bodega Dunes – 35 miles north of the Bear Valley Visitor Center on Highway One. 98 campsites. $35 per night per site. $8 for a second vehicle. $6 per person for hike-in/bike-in campsite. Accessible showers. Dump station. No hook-ups.

Wright's Beach – 41 miles north of the Bear Valley Visitor Center on Highway One. 27 campsites adjacent to the beach. $35–45 per night. $8 per extra vehicle per night. Trailers and RV's limited to 27 ft in length. Flush toilets. Potable water. No showers, no hook-ups.

Continued on the back....

Sonoma Coast State Park (continued)

Willow Creek and Pomo Canyon Environmental Campgrounds are only open mid-spring (April or May) through September; closed October through mid-spring (March or April).

Willow Creek Environmental Campground – 44 miles north of the Bear Valley Visitor Center on Highway One, then 0.5 miles east on Willow Creek Road. 11 walk-in (300 feet to 1/2 mile from parking) tent sites. $25 per night per site. $8 per extra vehicle per night. Pit toilets. No water. No pets.

Pomo Canyon Environmental Campground – 44 miles north of the Bear Valley Visitor Center on Highway One, then 2.5 miles east on Willow Creek Road. 20 walk-in (200 feet to 1/2 mile) tent sites. $25 per night per site. $8 per extra vehicle per night. Potable water. Pit toilets. No pets.

Fort Ross Reef Campground

https://www.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=449

Effective April 8, 2018, Reef Campground is closed until further notice.

707-847-3286. 51 miles north of the Bear Valley Visitor Center, on Highway One. 19 campsites, 8 person limit per site. $35 per night per site. $8 per extra vehicle per night (2 car limit). $8 day use fee. No fees for dogs. No trailers; vehicles limited to 18 feet in length. Coastal access, flush toilets, potable water. First come, first served.

Austin Creek State Recreation Area

https://www.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=452

707-869-2015. 65 miles north of the Bear Valley Visitor Center. 23 tent/RV campsites at Bullfrog Pond Campground. 3 hike-in (3 to 5 miles) sites (1 at Tom King and 2 at Manning Flats). 8 person limit per site. $35 per night. $8/extra vehicle/night. $8 day use fee. Potable water and flush toilets at drive-in campground; pit toilets at hike-in campsites. No showers. No trailers; vehicles limited to 20 feet in length. No pets. Reservations accepted.

SONOMA COUNTY REGIONAL PARKS

8 person limit per site. $32–$35 per night, $7 per extra vehicle per night, $2 per dog per night. Sonoma County residents and people with permanent disabilities may be eligible for discounted rates. $7 day use fee. For reservations, call 707-565-CAMP.

Doran Regional Park

http://www.sonoma-county.org/parks/pk_doran.htm
707-875-3540. 34 miles north of the Bear Valley Visitor Center, at the south end of Bodega Bay. 132 tent/RV sites. One group campsite for up to 50 people, $150 per night. Potable water, accessible restrooms, showers, dump station, boat ramp. No hook-ups.

Westside Regional Park

http://www.sonoma-county.org/parks/pk_wstsd.htm
707-875-3540. 36 miles north of the Bear Valley Visitor Center on Highway One, at the north end of Bodega Bay. 47 tent/RV sites. Potable water, accessible restrooms, showers, dump station, boat ramp. No hook-ups.

PRIVATE CAMPGROUNDS

Olema Campground

<https://www.olemacampground.net/>

415-663-8106 or 800-655-2267. One mile from the Bear Valley Visitor Center, on Highway One in Olema. Privately owned. 202 campsites. Summer (5/1–9/30) rates: full hook-ups - $56 per night Su–Th / $65 per night Fr, Sa & holidays; tent sites - $45 per night Su–Th / $52 per night Fr, Sa & holidays. Spring (3/1–4/30) rates & fall (10/1–11/30) rates: full hook-ups - $53 per night; tent sites - $43 per night. Winter (12/1–2/28) rates: full hook-ups - $47 per night; tent sites - $40 per night. Rates include two people (age 2+), two pets, and one vehicle per night. Maximum six persons, two vehicles, and two pets per site. Holiday weekends require three night minimum stay. $5 per each extra person, $5 per extra vehicle. $5 for showers for non-campers. Laundromat and post office.

Lawson's Landing

<http://www.lawsonslanding.com/>

707-878-2443. 21 miles northwest of the Bear Valley Visitor Center, off Highway One in Dillon Beach, at the north end of Tomales Bay. Privately owned. Reservations required. 140 sites. $45 to $56 per night. $20 per night for a second car. $8 day use fee (closes at 6 pm). Restrooms available. No hook-ups or showers.

KOA Campground

<https://koa.com/campgrounds/san-francisco/>

1-800-562-1233. 25 miles northeast of the Bear Valley Visitor Center, on the corner of Stony Point and Rainsville Roads in Petaluma. 312 sites, accommodates tents or RV's. Privately owned. Rates are for double occupancy and do not include tax. Full hookup: $100 to $128.75. Tent site: $50 to $72.10. Kamping Kabins: $175 to $272.95. $7 per additional adult, $5 per additional child. Kamping lodge: $125 to $199 per nite for four people. Showers, laundry, store, pool, playground, club room, dog walk, dump station. Disabled access.

Other accommodations:

Point Reyes Hostel

<https://www.hiusa.org/hostels/california/point-reyes/>
415-663-8811. Off Limantour Road within the National Seashore. Kitchen, showers, dormitory style sleeping and private rooms. Limited disabled access. $35–$39 per person/night/dorm room; private room $105–$130 per night. Office hours: 7:30 am–10:30 am and 4:30 pm–10 pm.

Golden Gate National Recreation Area, Marin Headlands Hostel

<https://www.hiusa.org/hostels/california/sausalito/>
415-331-2777. Near Fort Barry in the Marin Headlands, north and west of the Golden Gate Bridge. $33–$40 per person/night/dorm room; private room $105–$150 per night.

This listing is provided for the convenience of Seashore visitors and does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of any of these establishments. Prices are subject to change, call ahead to verify information.