

Saguaro National Park West

Directions to the Education Center

The Tucson Mountain District is located two miles north of the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum at 2700 N. Kinney Road. Call the visitor 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. if you need further directions. (520) 733-5158

From south of Tucson:

- Travel west on Ajo Way (State Route 86) to Kinney Road.
- Turn right (north) on Kinney Road.
- One mile past the Desert Museum. Turn right into Saguaro National Park and continue north on Kinney Road.
- When you see the first building on Kinney Road and the “Congested Area” sign, prepare to turn right. When you see the sign that says Environmental Education Center, turn right. After turning in, go right up a gentle hill. The first house on the right is the Education Center.

From the center of Tucson:

- Travel west on Speedway Boulevard through Gates Pass to Kinney Road.
- Turn right (north) on Kinney Road.
- One mile past the Desert Museum. Turn right into Saguaro National Park and continue north on Kinney Road.
- When you see the first building on Kinney Road and the “Congested Area” sign, prepare to turn right. When you see the sign that says Environmental Education Center, turn right. After turning in, go right up a gentle hill. The first house on the right is the Education Center.

From north of Tucson:

- Take I-10 to Avra Valley Road, Cortaro Road, or Ina Road west to Sandario Road. (Cortaro and Ina will eventually lead onto Wade Road, then Picture Rocks Road before intersecting with Sandario Road at a four way stop sign).
- Turn left (south) on Sandario Road and follow signs for the Visitor Center.
- Turn left onto Kinney Road. The Visitor Center is 2 miles on your left.
- After the visitor center entrance, turn left at the sign that says “Environmental Education Center”. The first house on the right is the Education Center.