

The Climate Action Imperative:

Understanding Impacts & Making Choices 2014 Summer Speaker Series

JUNE 18

Impacts on Forests

Dr. Richard Hebda

Botanist, University of Victoria, School of Earth and Ocean Sciences; Curator of Botany and Earth History, Royal British Columbia Museum. Friday Harbor Brickworks.

JUNE 25

Impacts on Ocean

Dr. Jan Newton

Oceanographer, School of Oceanography, University of Washington; Co-Director, Washington Ocean Acidification Center, College of the Environment. San Juan Island Grange.

JULY 10

Impacts on Food

Chad Kruger

Director, Center for Sustaining Agriculture & Natural Resources, Washington State University; Advisor, NW Regional Biocarbon Initiative. Friday Harbor Brickworks.

JULY 24

Impact Adaptation

Lara Whitely Binder

Outreach Specialist, Climate Impacts Group and Center for Science in the Earth System, University of Washington. San Juan Island Grange.

JULY 31

Impacts on Weather

Dr. Nicholas Bond

Research Meteorologist, University of Washington, Joint Institute for the Study of Atmosphere and Ocean, Washington State Climatologist. San Juan Island Grange.

AUGUST 7

Impacts on Glaciers

Rebecca Lofgren

Physical Scientist, Glacier Monitoring Technician, Mount Rainier National Park, National Park Service. San Juan Island Library.

AUGUST 20

Impacts on Coasts

Dr. Steven Fradkin

Coastal Ecologist and Marine Resources Manager, Olympic National Park, National Park Service. San Juan Island Library.

AUGUST 28

Impacts on Pacific NW

Dr. Philip Mote

Atmospheric Scientist and Director, Oregon Climate Change Research Institute, Oregon State University, Oregon State Climatologist. Friday Harbor Brickworks.

All lectures at 7 p.m.

State Senator Kevin Ranker and special guests to be announced, September 10, San Juan Community Theatre.

Free Admission

For more information about the Climate Action Imperative and our speakers, visit us at:

www.nps.gov/sajh

www.madrona.org

