but one piece the first and ninty third also legion fell back the rebels seeing on we went to shooting we gave them four rounds. they fresed on us was to hot for us for was ordered to retreat we moved of a ther Regts broke our lines we got scattered fell in with other Regts and was Rescifted by the different cols No man acted cowerdly not a man we all Run like Brinks you may call it as you may it was legs save the body.

we retreated about 2 miles not only the 6th but the hole corps.

Direct to Boody

Baldwins Brig

JOHN M. HOOK
6th Ind.

Tompkinsboro Dec 13
Dan Mass.

Dear Bro

It is with the greatest of pleasure that I write you this letter.

I am well at present may this find you and the rest of your folks the same.

No doubt you have heard by other letters that I got into a fight on the 19th of Sept. I expect there has been a letter home to you before this concerning the conduct of some disgraceful of others I will tell you this time now and you can judge for yourself.

of Sept. 1863
the army
was to a point a short of two and then marched the along our lines hundreds ranks again
grounds
Sheridans
on to the left their one half way and fell fate with only of his volunteers
the Rebels having all

On the morning of the 28th of Oct 1864 We was called up to make preparation for the advance of the morning at daylight we was ready but not ordered the morning was cool for we needed to be up early and Eager ourselves laid down. We awoke the echoes of the morning by our fires the sharp shooters saw and soon Breaking the silence of the morning & loud cannonade the firing began on our right Slowly coming along our lines Rosecrans our Battery opened on us the shells of the enemy which cut them down by hundreds the cruel storm of lead filling up the ranks again Checking not a moment, charged at double quick Routing the divisions of Jeff C Davis and Sheridans which fell back our division was ordered forward to the fire the first and second brigades had left their Brigadier generals their batteries was captured one half their men killed and taken prisoner gave way and fell back our Brigade was known to take its place with the others it was the 3rd Brig of the army of the Cumberland composed of 1st 2d 9th 36th Ohio volunteers and the Louisville Legion also the 6th 2nd. The Rebels charged yelling & all semi taking our battery all

No. 1.

Murfreesboro.
Tenn

Dec. 7th 63.

Dear Bro.

I am a going to march. & write you these few lines as we leave soon. for parts not known. we will leave.
in Two hours.

I am.
well. and able for the work B. Hero. & not Game and aaron Huff will be left behind we will carry. 7 seven days Ration with us.
20 rs a fig load.
I will close.
your Brother.
Lord on Hook

Mrs M Hood.

Dr Sir with the greatest of pleasure. that I seat myself. to write you a few lines I am well. May these few lines find you the same. the order has come to drill. I will await till I come Back. No more

John M Hood

well iam well and hope these few lines will find you well well old man you was friend let me now how my old woman is give all my sins i left there David Beck heaven for hell and old ale tinker and the convict lord David Beck

[7-10-1863]

Notice

Notice is hereby given that I will on the Fourtyeth Day of July 1863 at Ten oclock A M Proceed to sell to the highest Bidder one Red Cow Taken up by David Yoak in Etly Township Bartholomew County Indiana at the Residence of the said Yoak as an Animal Not Entitled by Law to Pasture upon the Public Common

July 10th 1863 Matthias Hook Constable

time to have to go to fight the Rebs. as heavy reinforced by Lee and Do Longstreet and others as lead. they fare not nowster us. we was forced to fall back to this place. the battle was fought 20 Miles from here. the boys all fought well. but one. his name I will withhold.

all honors is due to Prisoners himself at once all the boys as well I will give the names of the Killed and wounded.

Chattanooga. Tennessee
Sept the 25th 1863.

Respt Brother.

And friends. in general after a long. Inaction I now write a few lines to Tennessee. Alabama. and part of Georgia. and fought a great Battle. I will try & let you know that I yet live & am well hope you the same.

Brother I can give you particulars all present. we went in to Battle. on the 19th of the month at three oclock. P.M. and fought till after dark during which time we. three times charged the enemy at charge. we took a bat

Which they had taken from Thomas our third charg we was Repulsed which throwed the boys out of order we Rallied and checked the enemy we stood in line and shot from five till after dark the enemy gave way left us masters of the field the lost of the enemy was grate while that of ours was very heavy darkness put an end to the slaughter

fell back and got our knapsacks and tried to sleep but sleep was not for us the died and wounded lay on the field sunday come oh what a sunday was it to us

Mon
se and th
w mornen come log works at the Reb

left of o
st Minn engaged work (we against and helpe
this line we fill
to the re
my ar in the
I will close at the
are too

Will Bring Dicey & Nan that Belongs to the Battersea club I think if they was ant Near it Nan's not belong till we named clean th South and Pass Emancipation of Freeing the Negros or any thing else that the President thinks will put this Rebellion Down and then when we git Stronger with the Present affaires we can settle the Negro Question when this is over if it needs any I think Probably it will for to have the Negroes to Live with us as named now do I hope that is not the Extermination of Them and let them Stay with us this is the time to Assign Policies or Else Bring back the Negroes Children th Musket was Become th General Order of the Day well it is about Dark time to Close my letter by telling you that Rebellion Cannot last long Excepted by Ruth Ann

Ever your Cousin
Emmett Berry

[illegible 9-25-1863]

This is as fare as I know now. I will right to father in a few days and you can see: all for the present. I will close.
Herod is alright.
Farmer
John Fickney
an all.
and all the Children
Your Brothers
John & Hood

Write soon

let father do this. John an

[3-28-1863]

Murfreesboro Tennessee
March 28th 1863

Mr Hook

Dear Sir

I once more have the opertunity of Writing you a few lines to let you know that I am well. I hope this may find you and your family injoying the same Blessing.

Well that I hardly know what to write you. I suppose you have Natices in the Papers of the Evacuation of Vicksburg and Reinforcing old Bragg's Army Who Down they will crush our army from the Face of the Earth but if they was to See the Fortifycations that we have they would think Differant we are expecting them to attact us Every Morning we are Ready for them at any time I hope they will come If we half to fight. this is as good a Place as we can get from what I can hear you will half to Fight the Butternuts of Indiana about the time the Draft takes Place I am in hopes the Draft

N.W. Co. was Killed. our Lieut-Co. was wounded.
our company. lost as follows.
In Killed we lost two sergent Sam Horner
William Powl.
In Wounded.

John. Ford.	thigh
John McCounds.	back.
Wes. Houston	hand.
Lewis Brown	hand.
John Anderson	face.
Cisero Cow.	face
[illegible] Farris	leg.
[illegible] Horner	thigh
Geo. Tatem	leg.
James Farr.	body.
Lige Hopkins	both legs
Lafayette Cannel.	head
Thomas Smith	leg.