Dear Mr. Lewis,

It was a pleasure to speak with you about the grave of my great-great uncle, James Larrick. It's somehow comforting to know that he does have a headstone somewhere, even though all it has is a number: he wasn't ignored.

Here are copies of several documents that were in his military file and show that his date of death was actually 26 August 1863, not 30 September 1863. I appreciate your willingness to alter your database to reflect the actual date.

If you need anything else, please feel free to write me at the above address or email me at yz4249@hotmail.com.

Sincerely,

Mary (Larrick) Schmertz

NOTE 1.—Two of these certificates (or duplicates) are to be given to each volunteer soldier who may be discharged previously to the discharge of his company, that he may at once receive from the Paymaster the pay, &c., due him, and the captain or other officer commanding the company will certify to the act of the delivery of the duplicate certificates; on these certificates the Soldier is "entitled to" his discharge, and should also present his discharge to the Paymaster to have the payment endorsed on it. The discharge is to be given back to the Soldier by the Paymaster; the latter only retaining as his voucher the duplicate certificates.

NOTE 2.—If the Soldier is entitled to pay for the use of his horse, the Company Commander will certify to that fact, and also to the time he has pay due for having been so mounted on his own horse.

NOTE 3.—Amounts due the Soldier and Landress must be entered on the Muster Roll on which the death, desertion, &c., is reported, as well as on the final statement, otherwise the amount cannot be collected from the United States.
