He was wounded and captured in a battle in Murfreesboro, T N.

He could not write so just made his mark X -

He received a pension of four dollars ($4.00) a month - later $8.00

Further information pertaining to Samuel Garlands pension and his death -

As told by Lucy Garland Shelley.....

Lucy was born in Indiana, her father Samuel Garland fought in the Union Army. When she was a child they moved to Stoddard County, Missouri. She had two brothers, Moses and LaFayette and one sister Derry (sp) Moses wasn't born yet when they moved to Missouri. Lucy was 5 years old when her mother died. Lucy grew up in Stoddard County and married Thomas Sherman Shelley. Roy, Will and Lottie were born in Stoddard County (Bernie)

Tom and Lucy moved to Shannon County in 1894 in a covered wagon. Lottie taught taught school at Liberty. When Claude was 8 or 9 years old they went to paradaise, KS. Then back to Shannon County and then to Lyons, Kansas where Uncle Luther Shelley lived, he talked up Kansas to Thomas S. Shelley so they moved there and worked in the salt mines. While they lived at Lyons, Kansas, the Flu epidemic hit. All the family had it at once. This was during World War 1. Lucy put poultice on Lottie for two days as she was close to death. Neighbors brought food and coal and put on porch for them. They lived close to a hospital and watched them carry in sick and carry out the dead. No church services were held, no funerals and only one or two persons at a time were allowed to go in a store. During the Flu epidemic dead people were put out on a porch and men would come along with a cart and pick them up.

Then they moved back to Shannon County to farm. Built a house 2 miles from Birch Tree. Thomas died there from cancer. After Thomas died Lucy came to K.C. where her children all lived

Additional information.....

When Lucy Shelleys mother died, her father married her mothers sister. She was very mean to the kids. Would make them carrie water a long distance and then pour it out and tell their father they didn't mind her. She would pull Lucys ears till they would bleed. She used drugs. Lucy said they were always glad when she got her drugs as she wasn't quite as mean.
