63 On the March Oct

On the 20th we remain in camp the 21st day or rather we set out for Pickett, there we joined Genl Pickett's Brigade & camped Oct 21 22nd we set out by sunrise & travelled by sundown & encamped

21st Encamped in camp

22nd Oct 22nd Set out on the Lackland turnpike about 7 miles from the river the water had left and encamped.

24th Set out & travelled as far as Mt Vernon from Camping to the 29th took the Samuel Road travelling about 7 miles.

64 On the March Oct

29th Oct Set out & travelled from Mt Vernon to Samuel & travelled 9 miles

26th 27th Encamped

60 In camp 1863

Our new system now seems to be adopted to keep up the picket line there regulars detail is now made from all the companies in the regiment to go each days & the line may be extended so much to the right as to cover the entire front of the army

March 1st Sunday

This morning opens upon us in a bright shining sun his rays causing the frost to thaw from the ground

61

Read Chesterfield and return to our log dwellings and forget the days and doubtful existing Part of Mrs March as a very treacherous month for here lies Mt Solomon sinks behind the western hills she may send the wind whistling about our ears causing us to seek shelter from the inclement blast.

March 7th Sat. Pleasant enough for us as a change after a shower we take to the woods & cut logs & haul them to the line & raise a wall to keep out the

On the March Oct
Oct 28th Tu. Marched 24 miles in the direction of Columbia
Oct 29th Wed. Marched
15 miles
Oct 30th Thur. Marched 15 miles
Oct 31st Fri. Marched to Columbia, distance 6 miles. At this point we all obtained permit to go home, for ten days, length of time, and Entered 95
miles that spring D.
Nov 1st Sat. Marched

Going home Nov
went to Hampton distance 35 miles
Nov. 2nd Sun
Went home
Nov 11th Tu. Started again to the regiment via Scottsville Allen Co.
Ky. Stayed that night with Stuard 2
miles to Scottsville, Nov 12th Wed passed through Scottsville and went 6 miles on the Gallatin pike & camp with Soldiers that night

About to move 1865 We would go, and where
to &c. The most popular opinion was that we would go to Tennessee Hood and from there
probably to Ky.
March 8th or there was
about nothing, awful
rain and hail storms
but the day the sun comes out in all the splendor
formed splendor the rays
up with the prospect of another
nights rest on dry blankets &c. and that after the
of being awakened by the melting of the cold
wind or battering rain

About to move
We would go, and where
to &c. The most popular
opinion was that we would go to Tennessee
Hood and from there
probably to Ky.
March 8th or there was
about nothing, awful
rain and hail storms
but the day the sun comes
out in all the splendor
formed splendor the rays
up with the prospect of another
nights rest on dry blankets &c. and that after the
of being awakened by the
melting of the cold
wind or battering rain

67 going back Nov.
Nov 15th Thurs.
ment 1 mile beyond the Edgehouse staying that night and Schoolhouse Nov. 14th Fri went 1 mile beyond Gallatin on the Lebanon Pike staying in Mrs. Gillock lot and barn.
Our Squad had by this time increased to 65 Lieut Major of Co. D. commanding

Battle near Nov 68
Nov. 16th Sat. Capt Bryan came up early in the morning with about 100 of our regiment, and on that day we all went to Camp Silver Spring where we formed our brigade.
Nov. 16th Sun. Laid off our camp and pitched our tents accordingly.
17th Mon. Remained in camp.
18th Tues. Marched to strike the Nashville and Lebanon Pike

64 Morning
March 9th sun came out fair and very this morning with every promise of a beautiful day of retreat an opportunity to write letters for home &c but alas! a soldier never dreamed to the appointment for with the rising of the sun came an order to "strike tents" and be ready to move at a moments warning upon which turning out our eyes are greeted see tents falling on every direction, and every preparation for a general move apparently on hand

65 Morning
16th Our regiment and the 7th Ind. moved from the camp about 12 o'clock and taking the Lebanon Pike went as far as Flories River and encamped near the bridge which we burned across the river & I can't tell you what the rebels did for none of them had left the camp when we came away.
March 10th Fri It is raining right steady but clear to day and has been ever since 2 o'clock this morning. It is the worst part of it as we have not yet been allowed to pitch our tents, and

68 On the March Nov 20th
crossed Stone river 19th & 20th remained in camp Nov 21st 22nd 23rd. Went into camp Stone River and encamped about 2 miles beyond near a little hamlet known as Springfield.
22nd Sabbath General inspection
23rd Company
inspection
24th & 25th Company
drill.
Nov 26th Pleasant Creek

On the March Nov 20th
up camp and went in the direction of Nashville, encamping on about 2 miles
of that place
Nov 26th Wed. remained in camp cleaning up preparatory to another start Nov 27th Mounted Brigade gave dress to your Expeditionary boys.
Pres. Mc. an exhortation was address by Maj
Blackburn chief of the 18th Ind.

64 In camp at Nashville Tenn
Nothing of interest occurred Weather cold and raining frequently and the river is rising rapidly and Refugees have been called in from the other side of the river and the bridge is taken up March 11th Wed. The work of this morning with thanks to an all wise Creator that the rain had ceased and the sky had cleared away, and we have the prospect of another fine day

Stone's River 67
We were ordered to fall in our lines this morning and all hands to work on fair Rolls to draw rations
It should have been remarked that our regiment was paid off last week for two months ending Oct 31st 1862 and that our company received and pay on account of incorrect ness of the Roll &c and we are now about (illegible) March 9th Thurs Inspection Pay rolls to Town. for in clothing. Weather Mild fair March 5th Friday. The

71 On the March 28th 1862

Dec 28th Sat.

Marched out on the Murfreesboro road and encamped about one mile to the right of the Pike near the Lunatic asylum. Dec 29th 62 remained in camp sweeping up and burning wood &c. Had pretty fine times, hourly expecting an order to start on the great southern campaign.

Dec 30th Marched out to be reviewed by Gen

1862 In camp Dec 72

Rosecrans at 10 o'clock A.M. remained on the field till 2 o'clock then returned to camp without having the pleasure of seeing Gen. Rosecrans.

Dec 31st again marched out on the field for review.

At 12 o'clock Maj Gen Thomas, Gen Garfield and Brig. Gen Van Cleve and the staff officers of both rode down the lines in double quick saying nothing to us.

P.M. 4 o'clock went

64 Stone River

Boy Master came out and paid our regiment for 2 months and returned our Rolls to be signed by the company. Weather still fair and good prospective reviews. March 1st Sat. Old Sol comes out in all his original splendor, the air is cool and balmy and it seems as if the gay season of Spring had made its appearance. Co B went to be at home for review. March 2nd Weather still fair, warm and pleasant indeed we are much pleased with Gen Thomas and we do hope to have all the success that can attend any one would desire on the account of it.

Stone's River 68

The paymaster came out to day and let us all have a peep at Uncle Sam's photographs to keep our memories sharpened in regard to that old cuss and after all Co B has got to the perfection of a pair of boots and so far as I am concerned I will keep first good times on picket about 2 miles on the Murfreesboro Pike, and to add to [illegible] of the agreeableness of Maj. Seeber who had been under arrest ever since we arrived at Somerset Ky, on account of a difficulty between him and Lieut Col. Cram Shevelbine has rounded full in on the left of his company and went on picket with us, and went clear to the outpost and stood to his time which was 2 hours at a time, and two times during the night, he was on my relief.

In camp. Dec 1862

1862.

The Col was also restored to his command this morning. he had been under arrest every since the day we left Somerset.

Dec 3rd moved to camp.

Dec 4th our regiment furnished brigade guards.

Dec 5th Gen Mitchell and staff, the major going with us again.

The Colonel was again

March 15th Weather fine today Lieutenant Heaton very sick and Captain Clarke gone to Nashville (Clarke came up with the boys yesterday) and the narrator endeavors to kill the time by writing letters to his friends &c.

March 16th 63 Walk and had fine time 2nd had to have our beautiful camp this morning with all its spring & creeps of water moved &c, and are now encamped near Murfreesboro Fort Johnson

March 16th Thursday were relieved by 2 companies from the 2nd brigade we went back to town and encamped. Weather very warm.

March 20th Friday have to drill 2 regts of hours to day, and it is reported that this is to be a camp of instruction there and that we will remain here till the Conscripts which are to come out shall have been thoroughly drilled for duty & transferred to their

75

In camp Dec. 1862
returned of this command on this morning, as per Sherry an order detailing commands.

Dec. 6th Sat returned to camp. Command on very hard on yesterday and is cold to day.

Dec. 7th Lieut. Col.
Crum and Major Grider are ordered to their commands on this morning, and to day my regiment and the 1st Ohio Cavalry

76 after forage, about 7 miles from camp

but returns without any casualty, and plenty of forage, 51
wagons loaded

8th Marched and 8th Cav remained in camp drilling 4 hours on each day.

9th 10th 11th Our forage trains were attacked about 7 miles from camp; a severe fight which ensued in which the Colonel and Lieut

72

Murfreesboro

March 22nd Sun Weather still fair nothing of interest occurring
March 23 Mon Still drilling as regular current 4 hours per day
some rain this evening March 24th Tues Again everything cleared and the air delightful from which we conclude drilling as well.

Wed March 25 Cold—Cold—Cold this morning the wind is blowing almost at a hurricane speed, and likes nothing so much as being cooped up and that cannot be overcome

73

Murfreesboro

Any way it seems on with what alacrity of mind we cast my ideas to a comfortable home, and fond parents and affectionate brothers and sisters, and a well supplied table of good warm well cooked eatables &c. but my time was half out on the 24th of this Sept and next time will be giving them hell the remainder of the term and hurrah for the Union. But we have some good feeders taken for dinner and what a fine meal we will have, but then they are not feeders that disappear

77 of the 25 Ind were wounded, about 5 o'clock P.M. Our brigade started to the scene of action, but met the trains safe and well loaded about 5 miles from camp.

Dec. 10th Wed We Lay again on picket, also on the same day our camps are moved about 2 miles back towards Nashville or near to Creek and set up about

78 one half mile to the left of the road.

Dec 12th We remained in camp, sweeping of-
and so forth. 1 P.M. we started on a foraging expedition across Duck river on the Columbia pike & collected forage and returned to camp without any casualty.
Dec 13th Did guard on picket near the Franklin Pike Dec. 14 June returned to camp
Dec. 15th, 16th We remained in camp, undergoing

74 Murfreesboro 1863
moved to Lake. Company inspection to day at 10 a.m.
o'clock but after the group we got it off hands be-gentle Time.
Mon 30th I have to go on Corporal to day but I think it will not be bad as it is cold & warmer to day but is trying to rain or snow
the last I heard from outside.
April 1st Wed quiet from our camp, Nothing being done but a little work of company drill.
April 2nd Cold and windy

75

16 Murfreesboro
and as disagreeable a day as I ever saw I think—the narrator rather numb
and a very sore mouth cannot eat any thing scarcely, at all except it be cornmeal mush, that I buy and you may know that Meal Rates money, when I have to pay $1.25 cts per peck for irish potatoes, 40 cts per can per apple sells about one mile on a can, 15 cents per can Oranges
April 3rd about as mentioned, no drill to 79

District drills; and cleaning up and so forth.
Dec 18th Started out on a foraging expedition and to Cumberland river 7 miles above Harbeille, and returned without any casualty.
Dec. 19th Started on picket Sat 20th returned to camp.
Dec. 21st Sunday. Surgeons of the guard first Friday Tues 28th Monday. Col. Scudder takes command of the Brigade as before and Col Beatty is going to take his regiment.

80 from the brigade for same purpose. The first thing that Col. Streight done after taking command was to break up camp guard saying the men were tired over there anyhow anyhow. Sibley for Inspector of the 75th Ohio P.M. and had a terrible alarm the other night (Saturday) caused by the rebels making a attack at our pickets, but everything was set as it

76

Murfreesboro 16
day, the third Brigade has gone out on picket on a scout, and we have to do their picketing, and I tell you it keeps us busy April 4th. Weather still fine. nothing to do but go on picket about every other day April 5 Beautiful weather and picket.
April 6th Beautiful weather, received three letters from home To day, plenty of picket QC.

77

Murfreesboro 16
April 7th fine weather no drill plenty of picketing to do, but the 3d Brigade came in this morning from their scout and I suppose the picketing will be lighter hereafter April 8th fine weather not so much picketing and a little drill.
April 9th Fine & Beautiful weather, a little more drill.
April 10th Sat. Surgeons still health a little better for them and after making about 6 shots or so Subs. they hauled off in our boys day with the loss of about 200 men taken prisoners and a full battery of artillery. Lt. Col. Grubb arrived here to day from Ky. on his business. And now I will bring my short and illy connected list of memorandum to a my book is ready full and I have an opportunity of sending it home and at home I wish I could go with it but I content myself with the hope that I will live through the war and then look with horror I can return and read this book with others which I will have written when the war is over, and then Dear Mother I will live with you and we will be pleas

1863

April 11th. Ready for inspection, Dismissed at ten o'clock. Weather nice ~~April~~ 12th Co. marched to day at ten o'clock, muster rolls delivered from yesterday.

April 12 Fine beautiful weather certain inspection to day at ten o'clock.

April 13th Fine nice weather. Get ready for inspection to morrow at Ten o'clock — Fine all well, inspection

April 14th Fine Sor

1863

Rainy for inspection and consequently it was dispensed with.

Wed. 15th Drizzly damp day — Do disagreeable for ~~drill~~ drill. A general examination of all the boys that are now here and ~~are~~ not here to be paid on last payday, Lieut Col. Snider will be the man who will pass sentence on the boys and therefore it will not be heavy

Thurs 16th Ord were received at 10 o'clock this morning and ordered to put three 88 Agathas. Oh the delight of another company seems to me that I could talk with mother & work right now and not get tired, but I thank my God that he gives me strength and patience to bear with the many trials, perils and hardships that I have to endure.

84

Oh my Mother, oh my Mother!
How often I think of thee
And often I long to see Thee happy & well &c.

80 Marching 1.68 days rations in our haversacks and to be ready to march at shortest notice. Oh how sleepy I was! About 3 o'clock we were ordered to fall in, and then we set out on the Lebanon Pike, and reached Stone River about day light where we halted and stacked arms, and then lay around till about noon when we were told to put up our "Shebangs" alias "Dog tents" which we did and then layed to delay the rest of the day and all night

1863 Jan'y 81

Stone's River

Jan 17. The clouds have again cleared away and Spring seems to have set in in earnest. The trees are all passing from a dead wintry desolation to a beautiful, living green. The birds sing, sweetly on every hand and all what enobling influences there is in any known surrounding adorn Nature, remind us of absent friends and relatives, dearer to my heart than all earthly professions, but the prosperity and perpetuation of the glorious principles, contained

Wm Woodcock D. To.
Wm Ingville Waddle
Jno Meade
Jos. Bussler
W. C. Trigsam
W. S. Ford.
J. Ahrens
Nathan Ford
J. H. Hustead
J. Kelly
C. A. Bryant
J. Hopkins
D. C. Dixon.
L. D. Stafford
Levi Trigsam
J. Wade

L Trigsam D. To.
J. T. Wade
W Coombs
L. Trigsam
E Rhoten
W C Trigsam
W B. Rodd
W. C. Jefs.
J. Birch
Levi Trigsam
A. Jeffs.
W Hines

62 Storms River 1.65
in the glorious old constitution so gallantly won by the blood of our forefathers.
If at any time which I am in the com
I feel a degree of home sickness, it is when I see all nature shaping from the chilling effects of winter, and yielding to the genial warmth of early spring.
Alarms & all clear and conflict, nothing gone by slowly—nothing to change the general
monotony of the scene

Storms River 85
except an occasional jingle for performance which some of the boys persist in indulging in,—for the gratification of evil persons I suppose.
Thinking late and regular came out with a load of rations, which are began to be considerably in need of and the 2 U.S.
began to issue rations to us, and rumors were rife every in speculation as to how long we should remain here. When the order to "fall in"
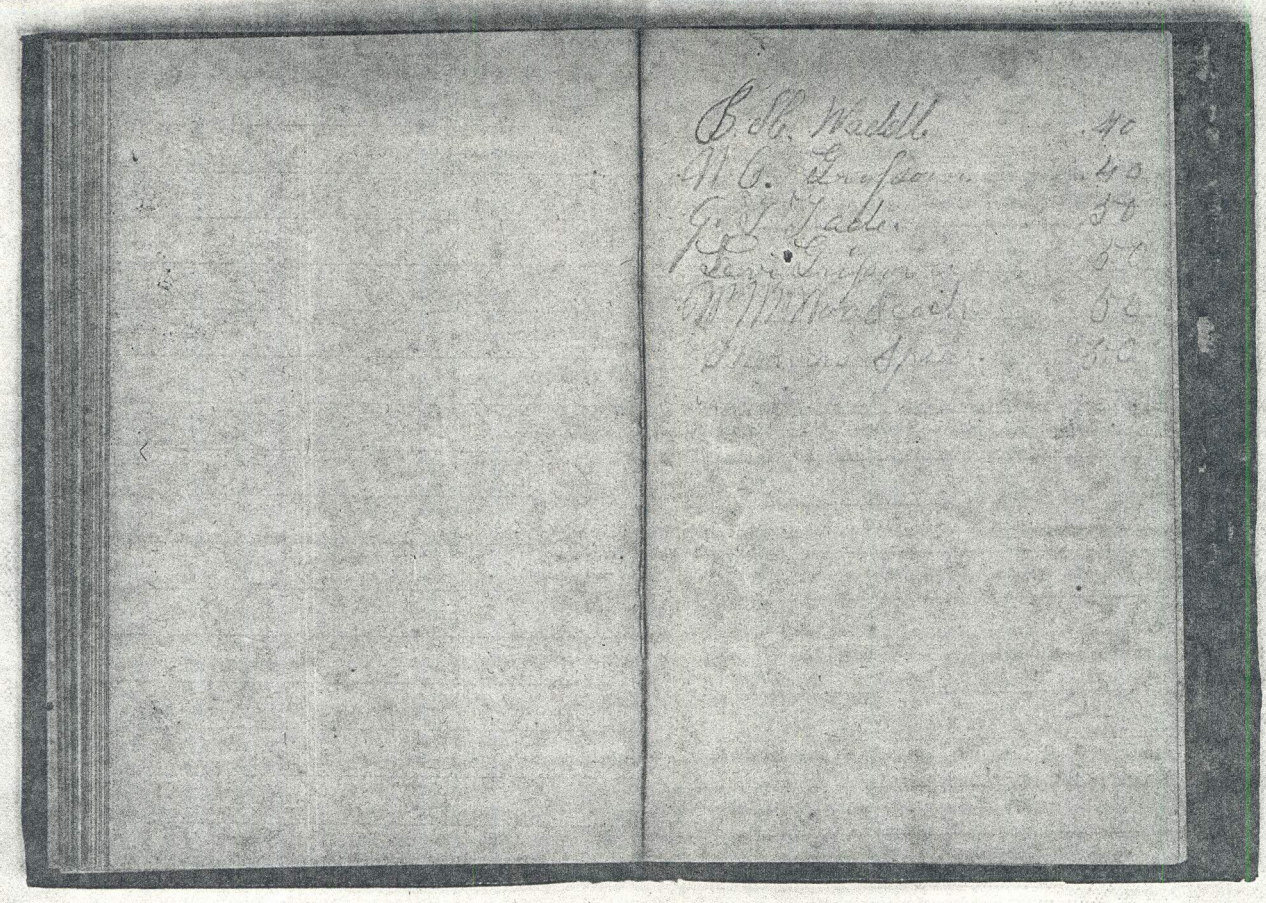
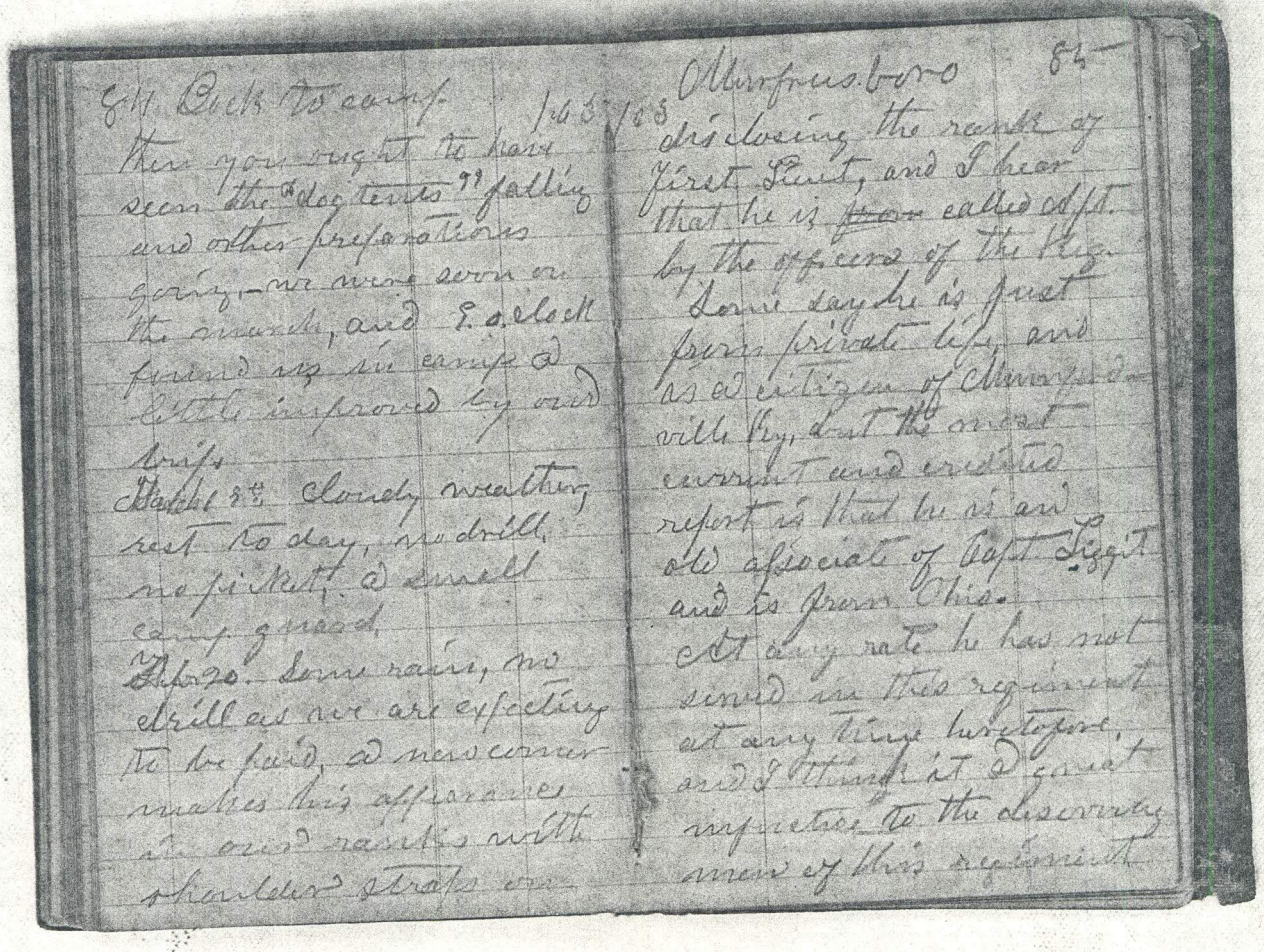
was sounded through the camp



S. H. Wadell 40
W. C. Grafton 40
G. L. Gable 38
Sam Draper 38
W. M. Woodcock 38
Thos. Spain 38



Sept. 14th Back to camp. 165 168
Then you ought to have seen the "dog tents" falling and other preparations going on. We were soon on the march, and 5 o'clock found us in camp & little improved by our trip.

Sept. 15th Cloudy weather, rest to day, no drill, no picket, & small camp guard.

Sept. 16th. Some rain, no drill as we are expecting to be paid, & new comer makes his appearance in our ranks with shoulder straps on.

Murfreesboro 84
discovering the rank of First Lieut, and I hear that he is ~~now~~ called 1st Lt. by the officers of the Reg. Some say he is just from private life, and as a citizen of Memphis with Reg, but the current report is that he is an old associate of Capt Liggett and is from Ohio.

At any rate he has not served in this regiment at any time heretofore, and I think it a great injustice to the discovery men of this regiment of which there are not a few to bring news from private life or from other states, or even from other regiments. Sd. 21st heavy artillery [illegible] cloudy weather, [illegible]. Received two months pay this evening from Maj. Osborne.

86 Olmsfreesboro Pa 8 1863

Wed. 22 Wid. heavy artillery one of the most beautiful I think that I ever saw used, — the air is cool and balmy. The trees are just expanding their green, the birds sing sweetly on every hand, and, — but that the thought of home and absent friends intervenes and stops all pleasurable meditations, and leaves but one comforting thought to the mind and that is the hope in a speedy leave, and the thought of being prepared for a future state of existence.

Olmsfreesboro Pa 87

Apl. 23. Beautiful weather, company drill, heavy details

L. W. Whitehead
J. M. Mathis
R. H. Lindsey
Lewis Combs
J. F. Denham
G. B. Denham
J. A. Vaughan
J. M. Taylor
E. E. Whitehead
J. F. Turner

J. M. Whitehead
J. M. Mathis
R. H. Lindsey
Lewis Combs
J. F. Denham
G. B. Denham
J. A. Vaughan
J. M. Taylor
E. E. Whitehead
J. F. Turner

88 Murfreesboro 103

April 24. Regiment and heavy detail per picket. April 25th. Cloudy, weather and a little rain, heavy detail per picket, guard duty, and fatigue duty. April 26th, weather fine and clear, rather warmer than usual, heavy picket and guard duties and the truth of it is our poor boys have to go on at least every third day and frequently oftener. April 27th weather cloudy and dreary.

Murfreesboro 89

105 and looking very unfavorable, detail for picket & little lighter than usual, but that for camp guard a little heavier as the guard lines have been extended. April 28th fine weather, had to pitch our Libby tents to day and substitute for them, our A tents, and I tell you I am not in the least pleased by the transaction. We now have no way of tracking case of the 16 days.

others that are ordered compelled to keep on hand.

29. Fair weather and no thing else,

30th General muster today by Capt. H. Harding also Genrial inspection, &c, each captain inspecting & commanding out his own May 1st Had Ron trist, Lieut Paint Paint Pat, Flowers
bringing mouth, Cut Jokes, all supernigers have ceased to bring Flowers Dance, Other than those employed by officers detailed upon of bitty days all Rain out Started to May 2nd Warm during and Windy and a little rainy by Noon To get Corn Like it our clay Tents

as Tent Row and Rain a Trifle to rain, and afford so many advantages for ventilation & ourselves needed in summer.
May 3rd Sun, Company Inspection, Dress Parade, &c.
May 4th Raining all the day, Sun. Debauch in camp gone, Cloudy going to bed
the first Company the