

Star-Spangled Banner National Historic Trail Star-Spangled Banner Scenic Byway

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Appendix B: Heritage Areas, Byways, and 1812 Bicentennial Organizations Influencing planning for the Star-Spangled Banner National Historic Trail

Along the Byway:

Baltimore City

- Baltimore National Heritage Area (Bicentennial Committees)

North Point and Baltimore County

- Baltimore County 1812 Bicentennial Committee
- North Point Peninsula Coordinating Council (Greenway)

Prince George's County

- Bladensburg and Port Towns 1812 Task Force
- Anacostia Trails Heritage Area
- Maryland-National Capital Parks and Planning Commission (MNCPPC)
- MNCPPC -- Lower Patuxent Scenic Byway

Southern Maryland and St. Mary's County

- Charles County Department of Planning (Benedict revitalization plan and interpretive planning)
- St. Mary's 1812 Committee
- Southern Maryland War of 1812 Committee
- Southern Maryland Heritage Area
- Religious Freedom Byway

Beyond the Byway:

Anne Arundel County

- Department of Recreation and Parks
- Annapolis History Consortium

Eastern Shore (Maryland)

- Eastern Shore War of 1812 Consortium
- Chesapeake County National Scenic Byway

Middle Potomac

- Alexandria and Northern Virginia Regional Parks Authority
- National Park Service National Capital Region (GEWA, FOWA, OXHI, GWMP, NAMA parks)

Northern Neck

- Northern Neck NHA Feasibility Study: NPS and Northern Neck Tourism Commission

Tangier Island

- Interpretive and Cultural Center

Upper Bay and Havre de Grace

Star-Spangled Banner National Historic Trail Star-Spangled Banner Scenic Byway

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

- Havre de Grace Heritage Corridor
- Lower Susquehanna Scenic Byway
- Lower Susquehanna Greenway
- Upper Bay War of 1812 Bicentennial Committee

Washington, DC

- National Capital War of 1812 Consortium (includes Virginia and Maryland)
- Cultural Tourism DC

State and Federal:

- Potomac Heritage National Scenic Trail
- Captain John Smith Chesapeake National Historic Trail
- Virginia 1812 Bicentennial Commission
- Virginia Department of Historic Resources
- Virginia Department of Conservation and Recreation
- Maryland War of 1812 Bicentennial Commission
- Maryland Office of Tourism
- Maryland State Highway Administration
- Maryland Department of Natural Resources
- Maryland Historical Trust
- District of Columbia Department of Planning
- US Navy