Be advised that participants will spend a significant amount of time in an outdoor environment. They will go on guided tours at various historic places around Guam, which will involve walking or hiking on uneven terrain. They will be exposed to the sun for an extended period of time. For safety purposes, participants are required to dress appropriately. Participants must wear clothes for humid weather, tennis shoes or closed-toe shoes, a hat, sunscreen, and sunglasses. They must bring water and any medications needed. They may want to have insect repellent, a camera, extra snacks, and an umbrella.

If there are any significant health conditions you believe the staff should be aware of, please write them below. This information will only be released to Emergency Personnel Services in the event of an emergency.

If you have any special dietary needs or restrictions, please write them below:

By signing your initial next to each statement below, you give your consent to participate in the Guam Teacher Workshop, “History Methods: Teaching with Historic Places.”

_____ I understand that I will spend a significant amount of time in an outdoor environment and will be exposed to the sun for an extended period of time on guided historical tours that will require walking or hiking on uneven terrain.

_____ I will dress appropriately for humid weather and bring the appropriate gear and supplies (water, hat, sunscreen, medications, insect repellent, extra snacks, umbrella, etc.) with me.

_____ I am able to participate in the physical activities of the camp.

_____ I am able to completely attend all days of the Guam Teacher Workshop, which will be from July 7 - 17, 9:30am to 3:30pm.

_____ I understand that slots in the workshop are limited. Preference will be given to those who teach social science subjects in the secondary level.

_____ I understand that, upon acceptance, I must pay the $150 lab fee, which will cover the cost of course materials and lunch, at the T. Stell Newman Visitor Center in Sumay. Checks can be made out to Pacific Historic Parks.

_____ I understand that, upon acceptance, I have the option to pay a $60 administrative fee at the Professional and International Programs Office at the University of Guam for three continuing education units. In order for me to earn the units, I must submit an acceptable cumulative course project in the form of a Teaching with Historic Places lesson plan.

_____ I hereby give permission to park staff to photograph, record, video, and/or film during the History Methods: Teaching with Historic Places for National Park Service and Pacific Historic Parks media.

_____ I certify that the information filled out on this form is true to the best of my knowledge.
