Tiffany Johnson

Brandon Cook

September brings Tiffany Johnson and Brandon Cook to the Weir Farm Artist-in-Residence program. Ms. Johnson aims to broaden her range by observing her environments using oil painting to preserve the essence of a place in time - in this case, the grounds of Weir Farm. Mr. Cook has always been drawn to and felt a deep connection with 19th century American landscape painters. His passion is to understand and express that concept by creating paintings unique for our time.

Weir Farm's Artist in Residence program (AIR) selects twelve artists to live and work at Weir Farm each year. To date, more than 160 artists from throughout the U.S., as well as Tunisia, Germany, Australia, India and the Netherlands have participated in the AIR program. Visual artists apply for one month residencies in all media and diverse artistic points of view from traditional to experimental.

The program is co-sponsored by Weir Farm Art Center and Weir Farm National Historic Site and the reception/exhibition is presented by Wilton Library. There is no charge. Registration is suggested.
