

Waterfall Week

Whiskeytown Plein Air Painters Schedule

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Whiskeytown National Recreation Area

Boulder Creek Falls -Catherine Jennings
Artist in Residence, 2003

During Waterfall Week visitors can meet the Whiskeytown Plein Air artists while they are painting and also get some helpful suggestions. The group's mission is to promote outdoor painting in northern California.

Sunday, May 20th...11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Whiskeytown Falls - two to three artists

Crystal Creek Falls - three to four artists

Saturday, May 26th...11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Whiskeytown Falls - two to three artists

Crystal Creek Falls - three to four artists

Materials will be made available for children (or adults) to participate in the artistic process along with the artists (clipboards, paper, paints or oil pastels)

Sunday, May 27th...10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Whiskeytown Plein Air Painters Art Show at the Visitor Center Lawn Area

Public will have an opportunity to see the completed plein air paintings produced at the falls and other locations throughout the Park.