

Photography Before or After Hours FAQ

Many National Park Service areas may be entered any time, day or night, at sunrise or sunset to view wildlife. At White Sands National Monument we share our boundaries with the U.S. military at Holloman Air Force Base and White Sands Missile Range. Due to security issues, the monument has specific posted hours of operation. These FAQs will assist you in planning your early morning or after hours photography trip.

How do I Arrange for an Early Entry or Stay Late?

There are two ways to enter the monument before or after public hours. Option one: Register at the visitor center, which is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. with extended hours during summer season, to backcountry camp at one of 10 sites. Backcountry camping is primitive tent camping following Leave No Trace principles. The sites are located in the Heart of the Dunes with a one-mile walk to the sites. No facilities and no water are available at the campsites; there is a vault toilet and a dumpster at the trailhead. The backcountry camping fee is $3 per person 16 years and older, and the entrance fee is $3 per person 16 years and older.

Option two: Complete request for early entry/stay late located on our website (www.nps.gov/whsa/permits-for-special-park-uses.htm) and pay the $50 monitoring fee.

- 4) Read the attached General Conditions for White Sands National Monument. Check the box “I have read and understood these conditions,” and

- email this form with your request.
- 5) A ranger will email the approval or denial of the request within five business days of receipt.
- 6) Final paperwork may be done by appointment or via regular mail.
- 7) Fees must be paid 72 hours prior to the approved date either by appointment or via mail. Email for an appointment to WWSA_film_photography@nps.gov and put “Appointment” in the subject line.
- 8) Questions will be answered by the filming coordinator via email.

What are the Fees Associated with Early Entry or Stay Late?

If your request for early entry/stay late is approved, there is a $50 per hour or any part of an hour fee. For example, if you want to enter at 7:30 a.m. the fee is $50 even though you are only entering the monument 30 minutes early. This fee is per hour not per person. Payment must be done in cash, traveler cheques, cashier check, or money order for the exact amount. No personal or company checks will be accepted. Make travelers cheques, cashier check, or money orders payable to National Park Service.

What Happens on the Morning of an Early Entry?	A ranger will open the main highway gate at the requested time; however, the ranger will wait only 10 minutes. If you are late, the ranger will close the gate and go about his/her duties.	You will not be able to enter the monument and no money will be refunded. There will be only one opening per group. Please arrive on time.
What Happens on the Evening of a Stay Late?	You will provide a description of the vehicle(s) in your group (make, model, color, and license plate) on the Request for Early Entry or Stay Late form. The ranger closing the monument on the date of your late stay will clear the monument per normal procedures. At the designated time, you will meet	the ranger at the locked gates at the entrance to the monument. The ranger will open the gates for you to exit. The ranger will wait only 10 minutes. Citations could be issued if you fail to exit at the designated time. Please do not be late.
