

Changes in the cave may damage the fragile decorations and change the cave's beauty. Any change we make in the cave is permanent. Circle the people in the following pictures that are not park protectors.

