

ACCESS POLICY & RULES FOR YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK ARCHIVES, MUSEUM COLLECTIONS, AND RESEARCH LIBRARY

Please read and sign below

Note: "The Park" as stated below is Yellowstone National Park

Access Policy:

- Access to collections and/or to a secure area by researchers is by appointment only.
A separate appointment for each collection is required. Any limitations imposed on access due to collection conditions, staff availability, and security considerations must be imposed equally on all users, including park staff's personal research. Persons needing to have access are urged to make their requests known to the curator's office or archivist as far in advance as possible.
  - At least twenty-four hours advanced notice is required, but does not guarantee staff availability. Prospective visitors should be aware that the park staff is extremely busy at certain times of the year and that authorized staff may not be available to assist them at those times. Accordingly, it is suggested that persons needing access make an appointment and be prepared to discuss alternative times with the staff when they submit their requests.
- The Park requires registration of all researchers (including those inquiring through the mail, on the phone, or via email) and each researcher must complete a researcher registration form for access to the archives and museum collections. This information must be updated yearly to remain valid. All visitors to the Heritage & Research Center (HRC) must sign in and show a valid picture identification card at the front desk at the time of the visit. All materials requested by the user are recorded.
- All non-NPS visitors and all NPS staff visitors who are not designated as authorized staff will be accompanied at all times by authorized NPS staff when in museum collection storage areas, when working in open exhibits, or when working with original museum and archival materials. There are no exceptions.

Regulations and Rules for Conduct:

- Pens and markers are prohibited. Only lead pencils are permitted in the library/archives reading room and museum research room for note taking.
- Bags, cases, packages, handbags, coats, backpacks, and all carried items are subject to search when entering the HRC and are not permitted in the museum research room or the main reading room. Lockers are available for storing personal items. No items can be placed on chairs or tables that impede line-of-sight.
- Scanners, portable photocopy machines, and cameras with a flash are prohibited to avoid damage to materials and copyright infringement.
- The use of tape recorders, typewriters, personal computers, and PDAs is subject to security procedures. The use of any equipment must not disrupt other researchers or staff.

- Food, beverages, and smoking are prohibited within the Heritage & Research Center.
- Photocopying is prohibited in the museum research room. Photocopying is permitted in the library/archives reading room within reasonable limits for a fee of twenty-five cents ($0.25) per page. Please be advised: All rare books and/or archival material must be approved by library or archives staff prior to photocopying or scanning.
- The museum research room and library/archives reading room will close if no supervisory staff is available.
- Researchers may use archival or manuscript materials in the library/archives reading room only. Researcher must work with museum objects in the museum research room only. No exceptions.
- The Park reserves the right to limit access to fragile and/or restricted collections.
- The archives is not a lending library. All materials must be used in the reading room.
- Permission to obtain a copy or scan for scholarly purposes does not constitute permission to publish.*
- Researchers who disregard these rules or endanger the collections or the work of others will be denied access.

*See Copyright Waiver

Citations:

- Museum Collections (including images from the historic photograph collection): “Courtesy National Park Service, Yellowstone National Park, [insert specific collection name if applicable], YELL [insert catalog number here].”
- Archives: “Courtesy National Park Service, Yellowstone National Park, [see archivist for proper citation]”
- Library Collections: “Courtesy National Park Service, Yellowstone National Park Library, [insert specific collection used for example, Vertical Files/Manuscripts Collection/Rare Separates]”
- When crediting National Archives and Records Administration (NARA)-owned collections: “National Archives – Affiliated Archives: record on deposit at Yellowstone National Park Archives, WY”

Handling Procedures:

- Archival and manuscript materials should be handled with the utmost care. Only one folder may be removed from a box at a time, and folders must be laid flat on the table. Instructions from the curatorial staff on the handling of museum objects will be furnished to the researcher and must be strictly adhered.
- Researchers must maintain the original order of documents within their boxes and folders. Attending staff should be contacted if there is any sign of damage to archival material or museum objects or if items appear to be out of order. No attempt should be made to reorder or rearrange the documents or folders or to repair any physical damage to archival materials or museum objects.
- Manuscripts, books, or museum objects may not be leaned on, written on, folded, traced over, or handled in any other manner that may damage them. No photocopying of historic images is permitted.
- Cotton gloves must be used when handling photographic images or museum objects. The curatorial or archives staff may also require the use of cotton or latex gloves for other materials and objects.

I, the undersigned, understand the rules listed above and agree to adhere to Yellowstone's policies regarding research in the museum collections, archives, and research library.

_____
Printed Name of Researcher

_____
Signature of Researcher

_____
Date