

BEAR MANAGEMENT AREAS

Purpose: To reduce human related impacts on bears in high density grizzly bear habitat. Eliminating human entry and disturbance in specific areas prevents human/bear conflicts and provides areas where bears can pursue natural behavioral patterns and other social activities free from human disturbance. Types of restrictions include: Area closures, trail closures, a minimum party size of four or more people, and travel limited to daylight hours or to established trails.

SEASONALLY RESTRICTED AREAS

LAKES

SEASONALLY CLOSED AREAS

ROADS

SEASONALLY CLOSED / RESTRICTED AREAS