

David Hickman

Yosemite Forum Presentation, May 8

Biographical Statement: David completed a dissertation on the environmental advocacy of nineteenth-century California fruit growers in December, 2011, at UC Davis. He teaches at both UC Davis and the University of the Pacific in Stockton, focusing on American history since the Civil War. A former Army Captain, David served in Iraq as a Civil Affairs Officer, helping to stand-up local governments. David live in Davis with his wife and two children, and spends his limited free time birding.